> ARREST OF AN ALLEGED PUGITIVE SLAVE BY U. S. DEPUTY MARSHALS. GREAT EXCITEMENT AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE.

ISSUING OF A WRIT OF HABRAS CORPUS.

Early on Saturday morning last, rumors were rife that a negro woman living in this ity had been forcibly seized by a person representing himself as her master, with the intent to return her into slavery. Upon intent to return her into slavery. Upon tracing these rumors further, it was a certained that the woman was taken, under a process issued by U. S. Commissions White, upon the cath of one William S. Goshorn, who claims to hold her to service er White, upon the oath of one William S. Goshorn, who claims to hold her to service and labor for life under the laws of the State | matter of comity towards the United State of Virginia. The hearing had been set by the Commissioner for 10 o'clock on Monday morning, and the woman had been commit ted to Sheriff Craw by Deputy Marshal

Our reporter upon reaching the jail found a large concourse of people collected, the greater part of them being negroes, who much talking excitedly of the event which had brought them together. Upon inquiry, the least, and I desire to take a little time to following facts appeared:

Instantly springing back and pushing the bolt, she retreated to Mr. B's. bedroom, whether extent, and now and then exhibited wesshe was immediately followed by the offi- pons openly. Shortly after the adjournwarrant for the arrest of the girl was exhibi- ment of the Court, an affray that might have ted, and they were suffered to remove her resulted seriously occurred near the entrance ise that a fair trial should be accorded her. She was immediately placed in a carriage said something which offended a negro and driven rapidly down the street.

Finding his outer door forced, and somewhat suspicious that all might not be immediately knocked down by Fitzgerald, exactly right, Mr. Benton communicated who stood over him, but did not seem inthe facts to Ambush, who at once, accom- clined to punish him further. A colored panied by several other persons, proceeded so man by the name of Green, who is a barie the depot, and not finding her they were in under the Johnson House, and who is search of, returned and ascertained that she known in this city, seeing the affray. was confined in the jail.

By the kindness of the Sheriff and officer France, our reporter was permitted to visit the prisoner, who is confined in an upper cell in the female ward of the jail. She is FLOUR GRAIN, PORE. SALT, FISH. BUTTER, an ordinary looking negro girl, extremely CHEESE, LAED, EGGS, SEEDS, black and somowhat backward about talking. She informed the reporter that her name was Sarah Lucy Bagby, that her age was twenty-four, and that she was unmarried. She seknowledged that she had been the slave of Mr. Goshorn (who lives about four miles from Wheeling) but says that she was there tripped and thrown by a gentlemuster's daughter, on or about the 17th of October last, and carried to Beaver, in Pennsylvania. At Beaver she was informed that by being brought into a free State she became free, and therefore she set off in company with another person for Pittsburgh,

In answer to an enquiry she replied that ahe "was not very well treated by her master," and she evidently seems unwilling to return with him.

ME- GOSHORN'S CLAIM. Mr. Goshorn, sen., states that he bought the woman Lucy in the city of Richmond, in the year 1852, and that he sold her at that time to his son, the present owner, with whom she has since lived at Wheeling. He further states, that he himself was absent quested the drawing up of the necessary dinary securities. papers. A mittimus was directed to the Marshal, and the seigure made in the man-

THE HARRAS CORPUB. The examination before the Commissioner $71,155 is in fuel, $31,138 in track repairs, had been postponed until 10 o'clock this &c. morning, on account of the absence of material witnesses. At the urgent request of on the oath of Ambush, that she was unustly detained and illegally restricted of her berty. The writ was served about moon upon the Sheriff and Jailor. At the approach of the hour set for the hearing, the crowd greatly increased in numbers, and the negroes gathered closer around the jail yard, and with threatening looks openly aftirmed that the girl should not be allowed to be returned to the South. Upon the opening of the criminal court room, the rush was immediate, and in a moment every seat was taken. Very few colored people, however, were visible among the number, most of them remaining as if by preconcerted plan outside the building. Judge Tilden having taken his seat enquired of Mr. Spaulding I he desired the presence of the girl, and was answered "not unless demanded by the other side." She was not therefore brought into

The commissioner exceeds his duty a placing her in the custody of the Sheriff, or this law makes it necessary that persons hould be charged with crime. Must I in-uire if this be a crime? It is nowhere ventured to call one escaping from slavery guilty of a criminal set! and I hold it a misomer to call a fugitive a criminal, though breaks away from a thousand Marshala hold that jails are made for criminals done (for you can't imprison a debtor), and hold that the Sheriff has no right, even by the fugitive law of 1850, to retain in custody an escaped slave. INCIDENTS OFFSIDE. The negroes were evidently armed to some without further remonstrance, upon prom- to the Jail yard. A man named Fitzgerald was conversing with the bystanders, and among the number, who thereupon applied to him some opprobrious epithet, and was out a long butcher knife, sharpened or both edges, and rushing toward Fitzgerald, made three or four furious slashes at him, which the latter avoided by springing back. Chief Engineer Hill, who stood within the yard, immediately leaped the fence, when Green thrust at him also, and then started to run pursued by Mr. Hill and the police. As the former drew near he turned and again brandished his knife, and as Hill was unarmed he was unable to get at him. Green then again turned, and throwing away his knife, ran up Seneca to Superior street, and was taken from home, voluntarily, by her man passing, and at once secured by the police. Fitzgerald had his knuckles cut, and another man also received a wound on the hand. This, so far as we could learn, was the only difficulty of any moment that occurred.

A good deal of joking was going on in the crowd, and among the whites there was no excitement visible, although some indeed proposed that the slave should not be release at any rate, until South Carolina consented to deliver up the forts she had taken possession of, which seemed to be considered a very good joke by everybody. It is to be hoped that the examinations will be allowed to transpire without any disturbance.

"IT'S AN TEL WIND THAT BLOWN NOBODY Good.—Saturday was a good time for reporters. With such an appetite for items as could only have been created by an almost unheard of destitution for many weeks past, they went about like roaring lions, sacking whom, or rather what, to devour. Judges Store. sheriffs and dignituries, of all degrees, were compelled to stand and deliver everything that they knew or had heard, with reference to fugitives in general or this fugitive in particular. A thousand and one conflicting stories were sfloat, each of which had its adherents, and the result was that the war of words at times, rose to a great height, but eventually resulted in nothing serious. This morning, it is highly probable, that the excitement will pass through a second edition.
